The screenshot displays a computer screen with three main windows:

- Browser Window (Left): Shows a local host at `localhost/2100018444/counter.php`. The page content is a blue-bordered box with the text "Anda pengunjung ke: 2".
- PDF Window (Right): Displays a document titled "modulpweb2021.pdf". It contains a list of instructions for a web programming exercise, including steps for reading a file, displaying its content, and creating a counter. The document is divided into two pages, with the current page being page 89.
- Notepad Window (Center): A text editor window titled "counter.txt - Notepad" showing the content of the file being accessed by the web application. The content is the number "2".

The task instructions in the PDF are as follows:

Bila suatu halaman web ditampilkan maka terlebih dulu dibaca isi file tertentu dan dibaca nilainya.

- Mulai
- Buka mode baca file counter.txt
- Ambil nilai hit yang tersimpan
- Tampilkan nilainya di layar browser
- Tutup file counter
- Buka mode tulis file counter.txt
